

Activity

Look at the photos on page three and find out what the children wrote.

You can make words with your friends too and send us photos of how you did it!

In the Tapori Newsletter, children give ideas about how to build peace and solidarity.

TAPORI is a worldwide network of children whose motto is:

"We want all children to have the same chances!"

The name Tapori was chosen by Joseph Wresinski as a sign of solidarity with the poorest children. Joseph Wresinski, founder of the International Movement ATD Fourth World, grew up in poverty. While travelling in India, he met very poor children called Taporis who lived in train stations and who supported each other. He later wrote to other children:

"You are like the Taporis when you look out for others.
 You can find ways to make the world a better place and get rid of poverty."

Today, thousands of children between 7 and 13 years old, across many different countries and continents, are connected through the Tapori newsletter.

"It's nice where I live and we have fun. I like the swimming pool, the skating rink and the tree-top adventure park. I would like to see more swing sets and a fountain like you see in Italy because it's nice."

Bernadette, aged 11

"I drew a face. It's my father. He has a beard and he is nice and fun!"
