

Slam on injustice by the Tapori children of Antohomadinika

Brother! Brother

Let me write, write again
Not to rant, scream, not to fuss
But talk serious about injustice
And open folks' eyes to this troubling topic

Floods, rubbish, exclusion, contempt
Have we always gotta to live this way
In our district the others call hot?
Can this be right? Can this be right?

Refrain: Oh oh Oh...

Different cultures but this is ours
Me it hurts, but play my part I will
And stand up for true friends
Don't exclude, look down, or discriminate
Give friendship a chance
To reach our goal, keep on moving
It's not like we can't do nothing
Like our luck was out
No, we are not alone

Refrain: Oh oh oh Oh...

Life is learning that's got no limits
At home, on the street or in school
Stick together we must
To get out of poverty, harsh misery
With its tidal wave of injustice

Brother!
Injustice is all over
But we'll get there, kid, we'll defend ourselves
We'll defend our part of town
Make it clean so they'll not call us crazy
Crazy 'cos we're are stubborn and brave
'cos we can't be rid of even when we're not listened to
Can this be right? Can this be right?

Refrain: Oh oh oh Oh

Always stand together, do nothing stupid
What we had to do we did
With what we had, with next to nothing
Be a model for the little guys who've got to get on That's it bro, stand up
And fight, fight against injustice

Refrain : Oh oh oh Oh...
